A School for the Performing Athlete

PDA USA COLLEGE PREP ACADEMY

PDA USA College Prep Academy – A school for the Performing Athlete, is located in Southern California. PDA USA sports training school was established in 1997. PDA USA prides itself in high level competitive diving and gymnastics. We are the only program in the country which has both sports in the same venue.

PDA USA College Prep Academy – A school for the Performing Athlete is for intermediate (6th-12th grade) high school level students. PDA USA College Prep Academy is a comprehensive program providing a quality education focusing on the individual academic needs for the national and international students. Our Academy welcomes all sports youth who need an individualized education plan.

PDA USA College Prep Academy prides itself with former international students who have participated in our program and have continued with a full ride scholarship to the university of their choice in the United States.

PDA USA College Prep Academy allows for intensive academic training in the morning allowing for the high level training in their sport in the afternoon.

PDA USA College Prep Academy is an online and offline based education. Small class size, individual education plans, fully transferable and accredited high school classes. PDA USA College Prep Academy has accredited multi-subject credentialed teachers.

For international students, English as a second language becomes the primary goal along with daily academic requirements. Non-English speaking students who have been in PDA's program speak English fluently within 6-8 months of the program.
